Dear Requestor:

This letter acknowledges that your request for access to public records under the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law, 65 P.S. §§ 67.101 to 67.3104, as set forth in your Standard Right-to-Know Request Form dated March 24, 2018, is hereby granted in part and denied in part. You requested the following information:

- How many employees are on the payroll?
 - Of these employees, are any unionized? If yes, who represents them & what part of the employee group does this representation cover?
- Please also provide the names and addresses of the non-unionized employees?
- Please email me this information at Nicole.jackson@seiu668.org

The portion of your request that seeks “How many employees are on the payroll? Of these employees, are any unionized? If yes, who represents them & what part of the employee group does this representation cover?” is granted. There are 5 employees, and none are unionized.

The portion of your request that seeks “Please also provide the names and addresses of the non-unionized employees” is denied because disclosure of employee addresses would violate the constitutional right to privacy. The names of employees however are as follows: Pamela Hackenburg, Brandon Ripka, Chris Smith, Todd Devinney, Douglas Bierly.

You have the right to appeal this response in writing to Erik Arneson, Executive Director, Office of Open Records, 333 Market Street, 16th Floor, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, 17126.

If you choose to file an appeal, you must do so within fifteen business days of the mailing due date of the agency's response, as outlined in 65 P.S. § 67.1101. Please note that a copy of your original Right-to-Know request and this denial letter must be included when filing an appeal. The law also requires that you state the reasons why the record is a public record and address each of the reasons the Authority denies your request. Visit the Office of Open Records website at <http://openrecords.state.pa.us> for further information on filing an appeal. If you have further questions, please call me at the contact information provided above. Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law.

Respectfully,

Pamela Hackenburg
